ONLINE WORSHIP GUIDE

MATTERS

FROM GUILT TO CONFESSION ● OCTOBER 11, 2020

Scripture Lesson / James 5: 15-16

The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective.

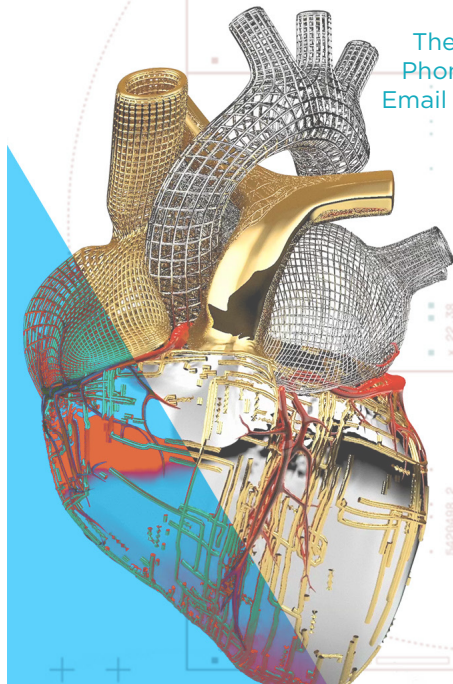

ONLINE GIVING

At www.cathedralofhope.com/give you can make a one-time donation or even set up a recurring electronic gift (by automated checking account withdrawal or credit card). One of the best things you can do to support your church during this period is to make arrangements to give electronically.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

If you find yourself experiencing illness, hospitalization, grief, or other critical challenges, the Congregational Care Ministry (CCM) at Cathedral of Hope will connect you with the appropriate resources that best correspond to your needs.

The CCM can be reached by

Modern Lesson

Our Modern Lesson is from the book Enemies of the Heart by Andy Stanley

Hear these words:

Guilt says, "I owe you." Guilt is the result of having done something we perceived as wrong. Every wrong we do can be restated as an act of theft... If I steal from you, I owe you. So the message from a heart laden with guilt is, "I owe!"

Nothing less than paying that debt will relieve a guilty heart of its burden of guilt. People try to work it off, serve it off, give it off, and even pray it off. But no amount of good deeds, community service, charitable giving, or Sundays in a pew can relieve the guilt.

At some point in your journey, God is going to call on you to turn and take responsibility for your past. It never fails. Unresolved relationships, debts that have been neglected, apologies never made—these are things God will eventually lead us to own and resolve. God's forgiveness doesn't exempt [us] from the responsibility for confession and restitution.

May God bless the hearing of these words. Amen.
