HEART

ONLINE WORSHIP GUIDE

MATTERS

FROM ANGER TO FORGIVENESS ● OCTOBER 18, 2020

Scripture Lesson / Ephesians 4:31-32

Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you

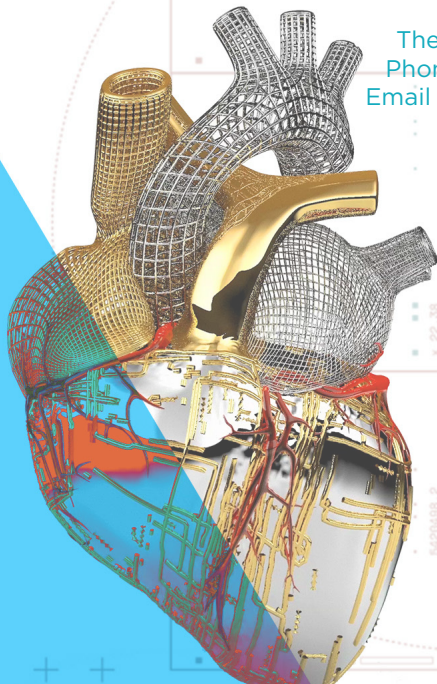

ONLINE GIVING

At www.cathedralofhope.com/give you can make a one-time donation or even set up a recurring electronic gift (by automated checking account withdrawal or credit card). One of the best things you can do to support your church during this period is to make arrangements to give electronically.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

If you find yourself experiencing illness, hospitalization, grief, or other critical challenges, the Congregational Care Ministry (CCM) at Cathedral of Hope will connect you with the appropriate resources that best correspond to your needs.

The CCM can be reached by
Phone (214) 351-1901 Ext. 124

Modern Lesson

Our Modern Lesson is from the book Enemies of the Heart by Andy Stanley

Hear these words:

We get angry when we don't get what we want. Now, what we want may include what we deserve. Because, after all, who doesn't want what they think they deserve?

Perhaps you see your anger as an asset, an ally. You've learned to leverage it in certain situations in order to get your way – or, as you like to put it, to get things accomplished. Granted, your anger probably gives you energy at times, and when harnessed and properly focused, it can be a powerful ally in certain situations.

But it doesn't make you more effective or successful. In fact, the people who are forced to interact with you see it as a weakness. A sickness. Anger alienates us from other people. A heart filled with anger is a heart looking to be paid back. Anger says, "You owe me," and it's often indiscriminate about who's going to be made to pay.

May God bless the hearing of these words. Amen.

TEXT TO GIVE

Simply send a text message to (469)507-3839 with the amount you would like to contribute. Make sure to include the dollar sign before the amount. Example: $20. The minimum text-to-give contribution is $3.
